Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Bores, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many ranking disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this purgative of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO.
LOWELL, MASS.
Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles for $5.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Diarrhoea, Flatulency, Erysipelas, Itch, Scalds, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Tetters, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.
They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.
Price 25 cents per Box; Five boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalelled efficacy of this medicine. The Agents below named furnish gratis our AMERICAN ALMANAC in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.
Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sign will be the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

For President,

JOHN BELL,
OF TENNESSEE.

For Vice President,

EDW'D EVERETT,
OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Governor Magoffin and Wm. L. Yancey.

The vaporing speeches of Mr. Yancey in Kentucky will fade from the recollection of our people like miasmatic vapors before the rays of an August sun; but there is a circumstance connected with his journey through our State which every Kentuckian must regret, and the recollection of which will ever be attended with a feeling of humiliation and shame. We allude to the unexpected part enacted in the recent farce by Governor Magoffin—that of traveling about with Yancey and eulogizing and introducing him to his audiences.

Who is William L. Yancey? A political adventurer, who is indebted to the atrocity of his sentiments for the space which he now occupies in the public mind. He is the man who boasted that he had destroyed the Democratic party, and had the Union at his feet. He is the man who said that the dissolution of the Union would be the realization of the fondest dream of his life. He is the author of like treasonable sentiments, so numerous that we could not compress them into one number of our paper. There is no need of it. The evidences of his treason have been borne upon the four winds to the uttermost parts of the United States. So notorious was the man, and so detestable were his principles, that at the commencement of the present canvass, the Breckinridge faction repudiated both with indignation and scorn. They insisted that they could not control Mr. Yancey's opinions, and should not, therefore, be held responsible for them. But in course of time, Mr. Yancey's political opinions underwent a change. When he commenced his political pilgrimage, it was soon ascertained that Mr. Yancey's Disunionism was like the mercury in a thermometer, and rose and fell according to the temperature of the surrounding political atmosphere. As he neared the North pole, the fire in his Southern heart gradually cooled, and when he crossed the United States political equator, he "roared as gently as a sucking dove." The Southern Mr. Yancey had become a Northern Miss Nancy, and he eulogized the Union in terms mellifluously bland and surprisingly eloquent. He smiled and smirked with the Northern people awhile, and finally started on his return trip, that anomalous being—a Breckinridge Union man. The Breckinridge party in Kentucky, being in a desperate straight and ready to catch at straws, conceived the bright idea of sending for Yancey to make Breckinridge speeches in this Commonwealth. Yancey was willing. Like a "swift Zany," he capered over here, to talk of himself, and to raise the drooping spirits of the despairing seceders. That is Yancey.

Who is Governor Magoffin? Personally he is a very estimable gentleman, and officially he is the Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. We feel justified in saying that Mr. Magoffin is not the exclusive Governor of the Yancey party, or of any other party in Kentucky. The people claim him as their Chief Executive. In our humble opinion, Governor Magoffin might have cherished his private preferences with great propriety, and our opinion is equally clear that when he descended from the dignity of his high station to act as gentleman usher for Mr. Yancey, he overstepped both the bounds of propriety and of good taste.

Governor Magoffin must know that the opinions of this man Yancey are held in utter detestation, not only by a large majority of those who placed him in office, but by over sixty-seven thousand voters, whose first choice, Governor Magoffin was not. How could he, then, with any degree of propriety, throw the weight of his personal and official influence in favor of Yancey? Nay, more. How could he, consistently with the dignity of his position, and the views of his constituents, endorse Mr. Yancey to the Union-loving people of Kentucky?

If it is Governor Magoffin's pleasure, he can support, openly, ardently, and zealously, the cause of secession and disunion. If it accords with his own peculiar views of magisterial dignity, he can introduce Mr. Yancey to Kentucky audiences, and endorse the man and his doctrines to Kentucky freemen; but it is the indorsement of one man only and not of the people. It is the indorsement of Governor Magoffin, to which, thank God, he has no power to affix the great seal of this Commonwealth.

SPEECH OF COL. WATERS.—The court house was crowded last night to listen to Col. Frank Waters, Douglas Elector for Fayette county. Mr. Waters is well informed in the political history of our country, and expresses himself in an eloquent, bold, and impressive manner. He poured the hot shot into the Breckinridge faction; exposed their tricks, their total lack of principle, and their treachery to the Democratic party. Mr. Waters made out a very fair case for the Little Giant. He was frequently cheered during the delivery of his very able speech.

ONE OF THE "ACCESSIONS."—Anderson Gray, one of the reported "accessions to Breckinridge," says that the statement "is a foul lie." Thus goes another of the sickly brood of Thorbacks started by the expiring Breckinridge faction.

An Admission from an Enemy.

The Hon. William W. Boyce, a South Carolina fanatic, a few months ago, raised his ebenezer at Ebenezer in that State, and spoke as follows, to-wit:

"There are persons at the South, who, justly incensed by the hostile course of a large portion of the Northern people, sustain every aggravating issue that arises in order to alienate the two sections, and by forcing power into the hands of the sectional party North, to force the South into revolution."

Considering the source whence this comes, it is, says the New Orleans Bulletin, a most suggestive and surprising declaration. It tells the truth, and every intelligent man in the country knows it. It discloses how the sectionalists of one part of the country play into the hands of those of another part of it, that the sections may be forced into mutual antagonism in order that the dismemberment of the Confederacy may be brought about. We see illustrations of this truth almost daily. We see how "combinations are formed," in the language of Mr. Rhett, and "events shaped" to alienate the North and South, to fan the fires of fanaticism, and weaken the conservative strength of the country. Now, it is these very purposes that the Constitutional Union party has been formed to counteract and defeat, and thereby save the country, including all its great interests, material and moral, from the evils of sectionalism in the first place, and the convulsion to which it logically tends, and if not checked must finally end in the second. And the members and friends of this party intend to effect their object if energy, harmony, faithfulness and perseverance in the interests of a worthy and magnificent purpose will accomplish it. They may be defeated, but they do not think so. If die they must, they will die hard, with their faces to the foe. They do not intend to give up the ship. They'll cling to it while a single mast or spar or sail remains in sight.

We cannot help quoting one more sentence from Mr. Boyce's speech above alluded to, as follows:

"Under these circumstances, I think I am authorized to consider this question of slavery in the Territories as purely speculative. True statesmanship consists in the pursuit of the practical; for government is a practical affair. As we can gain nothing practical by the most ardent and successful pursuit of this question, I think it is wise in us to dispose of it for the present, by leaving it where the Constitution and the Dred Scott decision now place it."

That is substantially what Mr. Bell, and Mr. Everett, and Mr. Critten, say. The whole question is "purely speculative," of no practical value whatever. "True government consists in the pursuit of the practical." Yet we are beating the air about an intangible will-o'-the-wisp of about as much value as a discussion would be about constructing a railroad to Africa.

Is it not time for sensible, practical men to quit such nonsense as this? It is the pursuit of just such "purely speculative" absurdities as this that has produced all the excitement that we now witness in the country, and that already begins to affect its business interests! Is it not time, we ask, for a pause?

YANCEY'S RECEPTION AT LEXINGTON.—On the occasion of Yancey's visit to Lexington, some astute lover of his conceived the idea of giving him a reception à la Douglas. We were fortunate enough to view the procession as it passed the Broadway Hotel, coming from the depot. In the centre of the street there were four white horses, a mayor, an open carriage, and Mr. Yancey. The horses were two abreast, so was Yancey and the mayor. On the side walk were three niggers, one with a life, the other two with drums. They were playing "I wish I was in Dixie" with great vim. The balance of the procession was made up of assorted sizes and colors, consisting mainly of such crowds as a life and drum will collect in large towns. The whole thing was so supremely ludicrous that we have no doubt Yancey wished himself in Dixie or anywhere else but there. It was worse than a failure: it was an overwrought burlesque.

Our young friend T. B. Gray has left Frankfort and selected Greenville, Miss., for his future home. By his gentlemanly deportment and constant urbanity, he had won for himself a host of friends in Frankfort. While they deeply regret his absence, their good wishes will follow him to his new home. He is a young man of strict integrity and of more than ordinary ability. We cordially recommend him to the confidence and regard of the citizens of Greenville.

MESSRS. KEENON & CRUTCHER.—To merely thank these gentlemen for laying upon our table a copy of "The Household of Bouvier," would very inadequately express our sense of their kindness. We have read the work with the deepest interest. There is in it an exquisite blending of heart and intellect wonderful as it is rare. The delineations of character are vivid, clear and natural. It bears upon every page the stamp of intellect of no ordinary order.

The complete returns from Ohio, except the county of Meigs, give the following result for Supreme Judge:

Brinkenhoff (Rep.).....210,083

Brinkenhoff's maj.....11,824
A powerful effort will be made to reverse this majority in November.

LOUISIANA.—A warm friend of Breckinridge and Lane thus writes to the Louisville Journal as to the prospect in Louisiana: "While I am going for Breckinridge and Lane, I assure you that Breckinridge stands no chance in Louisiana. Bell and Everett will undoubtedly carry the State."

The Mum Candidate.

The Lexington Statesman calls Mr. Bell the "Padlock candidate." We beg to refer the editor of the Statesman to the following from the Richmond (Va.) Index, of the 19th inst:

MR. BRECKINRIDGE AND THE NORFOLK QUESTIONS.
The announcement has been made in some of the papers that the National Democratic Executive Committee of Virginia, at its late meeting, dispatched a messenger to Mr. Breckinridge, to propound to him the questions put to Judge Douglas at Norfolk, by Mr. Lamb; this is a mistake. But the Committee did address to Mr. Breckinridge a letter of the character represented—which letter was put in the post office of this city, on Monday, the 8th inst., just ten days ago. We will only add that no reply has as yet been received by the Committee. Here is the letter:

RICHMOND, VA., October 6, 1860.
Hon. John C. Breckinridge, Sir.—The Executive Committee of the National Democratic party of Virginia, now in session, respectfully request you to answer the enclosed questions propounded to Judge Douglas by Mr. Lamb, of Norfolk, Elector for the first district of Virginia, on the ticket which supports you for President. Please address your reply to B. M. DeWitt, Chairman, Richmond, Virginia.

FIRST GUN FROM OLD VIRGINIA.—On the 17th inst., a special election for a member of the Virginia Legislature was held in the counties of Amelia and Nottoway. Thos. H. Campbell was the regular nominated candidate of the Breckinridge faction, and Charles A. Crump the regular nominated candidate of the Bell party. The Richmond Whig says:

In the Presidential election of 1856 between Buchanan and Fillmore, the vote in Amelia and Nottoway stood thus:

	Buchanan	Fillmore
Amelia,	276	150
Nottoway,	203	146
	479	296
	296

Buchanan's majority 1831.
Wednesday last Crump (Bell) obtained a majority over Campbell (Breck.) of 42 in Nottoway and 2 in Amelia—a majority of 44 in the two counties, which gives an aggregate of about 700; we have a gain for Bell over Buchanan of 2271! Glory enough for one day! All hail to the triumphant and significant result!

The comments of the Northern papers, make the fact unquestionable, says the Clarksville (Tenn.) Chronicle, that the Breckinridge men supported—and that without disguise—the Black Republicans, not only in Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, but even in Maine. Their conduct in the North is in perfect keeping with their designs in the South, with this slight difference: the southern wing would elect Lincoln in order to dissolve the Union, whilst the northern wing would elect Lincoln to defeat Douglas. With different motives, their actions tend to the same result.

CENSUS OF CHARLESTON, S. C.—The official returns of the census, as given by the Charleston Mercury, reveals the somewhat startling fact, that while the white population of Charleston has increased in the last ten years only 3,315, the slave population has decreased in the same time, five thousand nine hundred and twenty-six. After adding 653 inhabitants of the "Neck," not reported by the Marshal, but claimed by the Mercury as belonging to the city, it still shows a decrease in the whole population of 2,237.

SARSAPARILLA.—This tropical root has a reputation wide as the world, for curing one class of the disorders that afflict mankind—a reputation too which it deserves as the best antidote we possess for scrofulous complaints. But to be brought into use, its virtues must be concentrated and combined with other medicines that increase its power. Some reliable compound of this character is much needed in the community. Read the advertisement of Dr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla in our columns, and we know it needs no encomium from us to give our citizens confidence in what he offers.—Organ, Syracuse, N. Y.

Gov. Gist, of South Carolina, has issued his proclamation convening the Legislature of that State in extraordinary session on the first Monday in November next, "that they be present on the following Tuesday, to appoint electors of President and Vice President, in conformity to the act of Congress, and also that they may, if advisable, take action for the safety and protection of that State."

Our dignified Governor is going about the country, introducing a cotton precipitator to the people of Kentucky, who doesn't believe that this State can be trusted to take care of the interests of the South. Isn't there enough to occupy him in his office? If not, cannot the Frankfort people give that child something to play with, in order to keep his fingers out of the fire?—Lou. Dem.

LET EVERY UNION MAN WORK FOR THE UNION.—Let every Union man work for the Union, as if its preservation depended upon his work; and let every Union man vote for the Union as if the preservation of the Union depended upon his vote, and the Union will be preserved.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We are informed that Mr. Wm. Kemp, a merchant of Bardstown, was run over by a train on the Bardstown Branch Railroad yesterday and killed, but have no further particulars. Mr. Kemp's parents reside in Bardstown.

SNOW IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—On Sunday there was a slight fall of snow on the line of the South Carolina Railroad, between Akin and Augusta.

BRECKINRIDGEISM ON A DECLINE.—The Searcy Eagle, heretofore a strong Breckinridge and Lane advocate, has taken down their names, declining to give them further support.—Van Buren (Ark.) Press.

A Glorious Sign in Georgia.

We learn from the Atlanta American that a special election for Senator was held in Spalding county, Georgia, on Thursday last, and resulted in the election—after a hard fought battle—of the Bell candidate over the regularly nominated Breckinridge candidate! The American says—"Last year Spalding gave Governor Brown a majority of seventy! and now it has given the Union ticket a majority of eighteen, which is a change of eighty eight! This, considering that Spalding was regarded as one of the strongholds of the Yancey Rhett-Disunion Democracy, is, as our correspondent exclaims, "glory enough for one day." This is the point selected for Senator Iverson's first Disunion demonstration, at which two disunion Democratic sheets are published; and yet, under these adverse circumstances, the glorious, indomitable Union men of Spalding have secured a victory which may be of immense importance to the South and the Union, in the Legislature next winter. Union men of Georgia! see what effort, courage and confidence will do. Buckle on your armor, and enter the conflict like men determined to conquer, and you will be certain to come off victorious in November. Our correspondent writes:

GRIFFIN, Oct. 11th, 1860.

COL. HANLEY.—Dear Sir.—Enclosed please find the returns for Senator in this county.

B. W. Ferrell (Bell).....450
B. Roberts (Breck).....432

Ferrill's majority.....18.
Glory enough for one day, as this was the brag county for Breckinridge. You will perceive that the unconquerable Bell men have done their whole duty.
This is indeed a glorious indication in favor of Bell in the Empire State of the South. Push on the ball!

A SIGN IN ALABAMA.—The Selma (Ala.) Reporter learns from a very reliable source, that upwards of one hundred voters in Bibb county, in that State, have deserted the Breckinridge party, and declared for Bell and Everett! It says the people in that county are enthusiastic in their support of the Union candidates, and the good work goes bravely on.

We are clearly of the opinion that Alabama, in conjunction with nearly every one of the gulf States, will cast her electoral vote for Bell and Everett. The indications are all auspicious, and let our friends in that region keep the ball in motion, and never tire, and the victory will be theirs.

ANOTHER OF BRECKINRIDGE'S BENEFITS TO HIS COUNTRY.—The Raleigh (North Carolina) Register announces that the banks of that State, in consequence of the alarming threats of disunion, have resolved to cease discounting until order shall be restored.

Brownlow has addressed a letter to Queen Victoria, expressing his fears that her son—Prince of Wales—may contract the habit of lying and stealing by associating with Buchanan & Co. at Washington.

CAMP UNDERWOOD.—The Green river Battalion will encamp on the Bowlinggreen fair grounds on the 1st of November. On Sunday following the Rev. C. B. Parsons will preach to the soldiers.

ROBBERY.—John Daskin, a grocer, was held to bail in Nashville, on Tuesday, on the charge of having stolen $145 from the bosom of a Mrs. Noon, while the latter was intoxicated.

CHEAP GAS.—The Cleveland Herald states that the gas company of that city has reduced the price of gas to two dollars and fifty cents per thousand feet, to take effect from November 1st.

FROST IN WARREN.—The Bowling Green Gazette says that the late frosts have done much damage to tobacco in that county. Many farmers have lost their entire crops.

DOUGLAS AND YANCEY IN NASHVILLE.—Mr. Douglas and Mr. Yancey will both speak in Nashville to-day, the former during the morning and the latter in the evening.

HOGS IN MADISON.—The Madison Courier says that 40,000 hogs have been purchased by Madison packers the present season at $6 50¢ 6 75.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Governor Dennison has appointed Thursday, the 29th of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer in Ohio.

THANKSGIVING IN INDIANA.—Gov. Hammond, of Indiana, has appointed Thursday, the 29th of November, as a day of Thanksgiving.

Mr. Blackstock, a Baptist preacher in Haralson county, Georgia, was killed by a man named Philpot, on the 1st inst.

Young West, who attempted to shoot Mr. Scott at the Clark county barbecue, has been placed on trial in Winchester and acquitted.

COUNTERFEITS.—The Carbonville (Ill.) Times says counterfeiters on the Southern Bank of Kentucky of the denomination of two and ten dollars, are as thick as blackberries. A woman and a man were arrested at Carbonville for circulating these counterfeiters and placed in confinement.

MARRIED.

We return our thanks to the fair bride for a liberal allowance of wedding cake, &c. We wish the happy couple all the happiness which of right appertains to wedded love, which is quite sufficient.

Caution.—Spurious American Watches.

We are credibly informed that some of the Jewelers of Louisville and other places are selling counterfeit and imitation American Watches, for the genuine article, manufactured at Waltham, Mass., and particularly a foreign imitation of our watch, named P. S. Bartlett, which is represented to be manufactured in Hartford, Conn. It may be of service to the public to be informed that there is no manufactory of watches in that place. The genuine article of one grade of our watches is named P. S. BARTLETT, WALTHAM, MASS., and all our watches of every grade are marked "Waltham, Mass."

It is hardly necessary to state that such watches are like ours in form only, and are made upon the same old system that has already flooded the country with watches that are not only vexatious and a constant source of expense, but really useless to the owners, and when bought for genuine are calculated to injure the high reputation which our watches have attained. We therefore caution the public against buying our watches from any person who cannot furnish a certificate of genuineness for every watch offered for sale, bearing the number of the watch and the signature of the Treasurer of the Company, R. E. Robbins. We also beg to inform those who deal in the spurious article, that legal proceedings will be instituted against them, upon any well authenticated instance of their selling a counterfeit or colorable imitation of any of our products.

THIRD VOLUME OF
THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!

THE SECOND VOLUME of the "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agriculturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us one or more additional names for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish ONE VOLUME whether we obtained sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased for the Second Volume, but is nothing like so large as it should be. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public. The "KENTUCKY FARMER" will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable invariably in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail at our risk. Letters addressed to us need not be registered. Address

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its shortest study increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the entire system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

For sale by all Druggists in FRANKFORT.
